Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Remarks on ſundry Articles of News, and Pieces relating to the Britiſh American Colonies, publiſh'd in the late Engliſh Papers.

I Have obſerved that the Engliſh Papers for ſome time paſt abound with ſhort paragraphs relating to North America, which are either falſe, or put in a falſe light; and are evidently calculated to miſrepreſent the colonies, and raiſe prejudices againſt them in the minds of the people of England, that they might approve, or at leaſt not oppoſe the meaſures purſued to deprive them of their rights and properties. Theſe little paragraphs are read in ſo ſhort a time, that the mind does not dwell upon them long enough to detect their falſhood, or conſider what degree of credit they deſerve; but yet they raiſe an inſenſible prejudice in the Engliſh reader, to whom the colonies are repreſented as incroachers upon his property, dangerous rivals in buſineſs, and likely to deprive him of the means of ſubſiſtence,—as being a kind of Vaſſals to Great-Britain, ſettled here and ſupported at her coſt as her property, and being under a more abject, or inferior degree of ſubjection than the people of England.—As being ſeditiouſly inclined, diſaffected to the Engliſh conſtitution and government, and aiming at an independency.—As being an uſeleſs burden to England, for defence and protection, and ungratefully refuſing to contribute any thing to reimburſe her expences incurred on their account &c.—Other paragraphs mentioning further impoſitions intended to be laid upon the colonies, of a more grievous nature, alſo frequently appear in the Engliſh papers,—Theſe I ſuppoſe are only thrown out to divert our attention from the main point, where the principal attack upon our rights is really to be made, that we may leave that part expoſed defenceleſs while we are guarding another where we are threatned with greater danger.—Or that we may be intimidated into a tame ſubmiſſion to the arbitrary orders that deprive us of our conſtitutional rights, for fear, that if we prove refractory, a more grievous burden will be impoſed upon us, in compariſon of which, this, that we are now commanded to bear will ſeem a mere trifle, hardly to be felt.

In order therefore to expoſe the evil deſigns of the authors of the paragraphs, and the weak and falacious reaſonings in the pieces aforeſaid, I propoſe to make a few remarks, and to continue them from time to time occaſionally, upon ſuch of the articles and pieces moſt deſerving notice, as have been or may be publiſh'd in the Engliſh papers or pamphlets againſt the rights of the colonies. In the proſecution of this deſign, I ſhall be glad of the aſſiſtance of every friend to the natural rights of mankind, upon which the Engliſh conſtitution is founded.

The Engliſh papers inform us, that the eſtabliſhment of ſeveral royal mints for coining money in America, is reſolved on, and that a bill for that purpoſe is preparing to be laid before the parliament.

Whether this article is inſerted to perſuade the people of England that the colonies abound with gold and ſilver, and therefore are able to pay the taxes the parliament have thought fit to order, without difficulty; or whether it was publiſh'd by way of Sneer, to inſult our weakneſs and poverty, after having ſtopped up all the ſources by which wealth might flow in upon us, and drained us of what we had—which of theſe was deſign'd I know not,—but certainly if there is any truth in the news, the parliament ſhould have added one more reſolve to the Stamp-Bill, viz. ◊ That ſome new mines of gold and ſilver ſhould be eſtabliſhed in the Britiſh colonies, or that the gold and ſilver from thoſe of Mexico and Peru, ſhould hereafter be all bro't to the aforeſaid mints to furniſh them with employment.

The Engliſh papers inform us, That by the late eſtabliſhment of 14 new manufactories in North-America. Great-Britain is annually injured in a ſum little ſhort of half a million ſterling.

If the meaning of this paragraph is, that by the eſtabliſhment of the manufactories, which the reſtraints laid upon the trade of the colonies, and the taxes upon their importations have obliged them to have recourſe to, the trade for half a million annually, that they uſed to purchaſe of Great-Britain, is now cut off and loſt to her, the colonies being obliged to ſupply themſelves by their own manufactories with the articles, or learn to make ſhift without them.—If this be the meaning, I believe the account may be true; and it might be added with truth, that four times the annual ſum, will, by purſuing the ſame meaſures, be finally loſt to Great-Britain.—But if the meaning be, that the colonies are guilty of doing an injury to Great-Britain by keeping within themſelves half a million annually that they uſed to pay to Great-Britain for the purchaſe of goods that (ſhe having diſabled them from purchaſing of her) they have now learn'd to ſupply by their own manufactories.—If this be the meaning, with what propriety or modeſty can ſuch a charge upon the colonies be made?

Has any one a right to charge another with injuſtice for ceaſing to purchaſe of him goods which he has learn'd to make himſelf? Can any thing be more ridiculous than ſuch a pretenſion? Muſt I injure myſelf by paying for aſſiſtance I don't want, becauſe the perſon I uſed to employ will be angry if I don't continue to pay him as I did when I wanted his ſervice?—Is he diſpleaſed with me for prefering my own intereſt to his, when he himſelf does the ſame, and by that very diſpleaſure ſhows that he perfers his intereſt to mine?

But this pretence from our mother country will appear ſtill more highly abſurd, when it is conſidered that ſhe herſelf forced the colonies upon the exertion of their abilities to help themſelves, by reducing them to this alternative, Either to ſtarve,—or ſupport themſelves. She firſt cuts off all the channels of their trade, whereby they uſed to acquire thoſe effects that enabled them to purchaſe her manufactures, and then burden'd theſe manufactures with ſuch additional charges, as made it utterly impracticable for the colonies to purchaſe them.—And is it our mother, who is angry that her children endeavour to ſupport themſelves! If ſo, ſhe is more ſevere than the Egyptian King, who exacted of the Iſraelites the full taſe of brick without ſupplying them with ſtraw, that uſed to be required when it was given them! vide [To be continued.] Page 107

Wedneſday laſt arrived at Marblehead the Captains Cloufton and Lowell, both from Liverpool in 5 Weeks; in the latter came Paſſenger Capt. Nath. Greene, of this Town, by whom we have London Prints to the 19*th of* April, and from which we have extracted the following Articles, viz.

LONDON, April 17.

YESTERDAY morning, about half after nine, Lord Byron, in his own coach and pair, eſcorted by a party of the guards, conſiſting both of horſe and foot, attended by the lieutenant-governor of the tower, and two other gentlemen, went in a coach over London-bridge to Weſtminſter-hall. The trial began at eleven o'clock, and continued till five, when the further proceedings were adjourned till this morning ten o'clock.

The counſel for the crown on this occaſion were the Attorney-General, the Sollicitor-General, Mr. Serjeant Glynne, Mr. Stowe, and Mr. Cornwall; Attorney, Mr. Joynes. His Lordſhip's counſel were the hon. Charles Yorke, Mr. Wedderburn, and Mr. Wallace; Attorney, Mr. Potts.

The right hon. the Lord High Steward went in great ſtate from his houſe in Lincoln's-inn fields to Weſtminſter-hall. His Lordſhip had four coaches, the horſes were ornamented with ribbons, &c. and there were upwards of 20 ſervants in livery.

The Peers in their parliament robes went in proceſſion to Weſtminſter-hall. All the avenues leading to the hall were guarded by ſoldiers.

April 19. Wedneſday morning at 11 o'clock, the hon. the houſe of Peers went to Weſtminſter-hall, & proceeded on the examination of the witneſſes in ſupport of the charge againſt Lord Byron; which being finiſhed, the Sollicitor-General ſummed up the evidence; after which Lord Byron, who declined examining any witneſſes on his own behalf, told their lordſhips, that what he had to offer in his own vindication he had committed to writing, and begged that it might be read by the clerk, as he feared his own voice, conſidering his preſent ſituation, would not be heard. His ſpeech was accordingly read by the clerk in a very audible and diſtinct manner, and contained an exact detail of all the particulars relating to the melancholy affair between him and Mr. Chaworth. He ſaid, he declined entering into the circumſtances of Mr. Chaworth's behaviour farther than was neceſſary for his own defence, expreſſed his deep and unfeigned ſorrow for the event, and repoſed himſelf with the utmoſt confidence on their lordſhips juſtice and humanity, and would with chearfulneſs acquieſce in the ſentence of the nobleſt and moſt equitable judicature in the world, whether it were for life or for death. The Peers then adjourned to their own houſe, and after ſome time returned, when they found his lordſhip guilty of felony, but not of murder.—The witneſſes examined on behalf of the crown, were ſeveral gentlemen in company at the tavern when the accident happen'd, the maſter and waiters, the ſurgeons who attended Mr. Chaworth, his uncle, and the lawyer who made his will.

[By an act of parliament made in the firſt year of the reign of King Edward the 6th. it is enacted, "That in all and every caſe and caſes, where any of the King's majeſty's ſubjects ſhall and may, upon his prayer, have the privilege as a clerk convict, that may make purgation; in all thoſe caſes and every of them, and alſo in all and every caſe and caſes of felony, wherein the privilege and benefit of clergy is reſtrained, excepted, or taken away by this ſtatute or act, (wilful murder, and poiſoning of malice prepenſe, only excepted,) the Lord and Lords of the parliament, and Peer and Peers of the realm, having place and voice in parliament, ſhall, by virtue of this preſent act of common grace, upon his or their requeſt or prayer, alledging that he is a Lord or Peer of this realm, and claiming the benefit of this act, tho' he cannot read, without any burning in the hand, loſs of inheritance, or corruption of his blood, be adjudged, deemed, taken and uſed for the firſt time only, to all intents and purpoſes, as a clerk convict, and ſhall be in a caſe of a clerk convict, which may make purgation, without any further or other benefit or privilege of clergy, to any ſuch Lord or Peer, from thenceforth at any time after, for any cauſe to be allowed, adjudged, or admitted; any law, ſtatute, uſage, cuſtom, or any other thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding."]

A Gentleman writes from Quebec, that the hopes of finding a communication with the weſtern ocean, by means of the inland lakes of Canada, have been grounded on the favourable reports of ſome Indians of lake ſuperior (which by reaſon of its greatneſs is worſhipped as a divinity) who inform, that a vaſt river runs weſtward many hundred miles, as large as the Miſſiſippi: which, if true, may in time be a means of laying open the treaſure of Aquapulco and the Spaniſh ſouth ſea.

'Tis whiſpered, that if a certain illuſtrious nobleman does not go over again as governor of a certain kingdom, the real reaſon is, that his power to oblige in proportion to the well-known munificence of his diſpoſition is contracted, that beſides, there is a deſign of charging him with ſome commiſſion, no way agreeable to the generoſity of his temper.

We hear, that a ſword is making for his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the hilt of which alone will be worth 400 guineas.

The court of Madrid having, to the repeated remonſtrances of the Earl of Rochfort, abſolutely denied any knowledge of the frequent inſults offered to the Britiſh logwood cutters in the Bay of Honduras, we are credibly informed, the laſt diſpatches to his Excellency, contains orders poſitively to inſiſt, that the Spaniſh governors and officers, who have thus dared to violate the treaty between the two crowns, may not only be diſmiſſed from their employments, but alſo ordered home to anſwer for their conduct.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, March 12.

"The governor of the Havannah at the time it was taken by the Engliſh, the commander in chief of the Spaniſh ſquadron and member of a council of war, which was held there, with the Preſident, and another member of the ſaid council of war, are all deprived of their military employments, and baniſhed forty leagues from court for ten years; and their eſtates are confiſcated, to make good the loſſes and damage which the finances of his Majeſty, as well as our commerce, ſuſtained by their conduct."

Dublin March 16. About eight o'clock on wedneſday night Nicholas Sheehy, a Popiſh Prieſt, (charged with being concerned in ſeveral treaſonable practices to raiſe a rebellion in this kingdom, for the apprehending of whom the goverment offered a reward of 300l.) was brought to town, guarded by a party of light horſe, and was lodged in the Caſtle.

It is ſaid an exchange of territory is now upon the carpet between the courts of Copenhagen and London, by which the former is to enjoy certain lands in ſome of the new Britiſh American colonies, in return for the Daniſh Iſland of St. Thomas, lying under the Equinoctial, of great advantage to the Engliſh commerce on the coaſt of Africa.

In the laſt diſpatches from the Earl of Rochford at Madrid, it has been aſſured, on the faith of the Catholic Miniſtry, that the court of Spain have not the leaſt intention to interfere in diſputes which may happen between the French and Engliſh on the coaſts of Africa.---A nobleman of the firſt diſtinction will be ſoon ſent over to Portugal, with a commiſſion to ſpeak, in very plain terms about the obſtructions which our commerce daily meets with from the miniſterial machinations of that kingdom.---Friday ſome diſpatches of importance were ſent off to the Earl of Hertford at Paris.---From Amſterdam there is advice, that the Dutch at Batavia have, for ſome time paſt, been meditating an expedition of conſequence in the Eaſt-Indies.

We hear that an order will ſoon be iſſued, by which the gentlemen of the army are to wear nothing but their regimental uniforms.

We hear that the ladies, who through the dirt of the laſt winter or two, dragged out many a yard of ſilk at their tails, are now come to a reſolution of diſplaying their induſtry, by introducing gowns ſo ſhort, as may convince the gentlemen that they have no holes in their ſtockings.

The time allowed to the people of the Iſle of Man to diſpoſe of their mercantile effects, ſubject to duties of cuſtoms and exciſe, we now hear, will be extended to 12 months.

Extract of a letter from Capt. Nixon, to his brother in Dublin, dated Madura, Oct. 12, 1764.

"Our army has been employed a whole year in beſieging Madura, which we daily expect to ſurrender, as the rebel Nabob, Sujah Doulah, is brought to the laſt extremity, being reduced to eat horſes and monkeys, by way of proviſion. The number of Indians aſſembled on this occaſion, exceeded 900. They were to go to their reſpective homes in a few days after the 16th of May, and the priſoners were to be delivered up within 40 days, in which time there is reaſon to expect they will be punctual, as there are ſo many of their chiefs hoſtages at preſent in Sir William's cuſtody, whoſe enlargement muſt be greatly deſired by the ſeveral nations.

Charleſtown, June 1, 1765. THOMAS GOODWIN.

We last May last arrived at Marblehead, Capts Clouston and Lowell, from Liverpool, in 5 Weeks; by a Passenger which came in the latter we have London Prints to the 19th of April, from which we have the following Paragraphs;

London, April 17 to 19.

It is said an exchange of territory is now upon the carpet between the Courts of Copenhagen and London, by which the former is to enjoy certain lands in some of the new British American Colonies, in return for the Danish Island of St. Thomas, lying under the Equinoctial, of great advantage to the English commerce on the coast of Africa.

Letters from Toulon of the 26th ult. advise, that the fleet of four frigates and four xebeques, which have been fitting out there, would be ready to sail in a few days; and were to be joined by a bombketch.

A Coalition among the Great, it is very confidently said, will take place before the breaking up of the Parliament.

They write from Quebec, that upwards of fifty thousand hard dollars have already been taken since the Peace, in exchange for various kinds of iron work, the manufacture of Canada, exported to the Spanish settlements in South America.

Near thirty Bakers are engaged to go over to East and West Florida.

Letters from Gottingen, of the 6th instant, positively assert, that Dr. Klarich, belonging to the University there, had actually cured upwards of fifty persons of the tooth-ach by the application of a loadstone. He places the patients with their faces towards the North, and touching the teeth with a magnet, procures them ease in three or four minutes.

It is said, that a Gentleman of the Turf won no less than 50,000l. in two matches and one bett; last Newmarket Meeting.

It is confidently said, the prohibiting the exportation of corn for a time limitted, will very speedily take place.

It is said our Court have been requested to join with no less than three maritime powers, to check the exorbitant insolence of the Moors on the coasts of Barbary, by whom the European trade in the Mediterranean has, for some time past been intolerably harrassed.

The various reports concerning an approaching change in the office of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, we are assured are groundless.

In the last dispatches from the Earl of Rochford at Madrid, it has been assured, on the faith of the Catholic Ministry, that the Court of Spain have not the least intention to interfere in disputes which may happen between the French and English on the Coasts of Africa.—A Nobleman of the first distinction will be soon sent over to Portugal, with a commission to speak, in very plain terms about the obstructions which our commerce daily meet with from the ministerial machinations of that kingdom. —Friday some dispatches of importance were sent off to the Earl of Hertford at Paris —From Amsterdam there is advice, that the Dutch at Batavia have, for some time past, been meditating an expedition of consequence in the East-Indies.

By a calculation made in France, the value of the imports during last year from the Islands of Hispaniola, Martinico, and Guadaloupe, into that kingdom, amounted to upwards of ninety seven millions of livers about four millions two hundred pounds sterling.

Letters from Carthagena mention, the orders were just received from Court, to fit out the St. Isidore, Galera, and Thoulouse Spanish frigates, of thirty six guns each, in order to proceed on and important expedition to the coast of Barbary, to be joined by a considerable naval force from Toulon. Their destination was said to be against Mogador.

A general recall of all his Majesty's ships of war is expected to take place some time this month.

Three ships of war have this week been appointed for the East Indies, and it is reported they will have orders to take the route of the Phillippine islands, to execute a commission of great consequence to the honour and dignity of this nation—The affair of the Manilla ransom, with the proper methods to obtain Satisfaction on that head from the court of Madrid, we are assured, will be throughly investigated before the breaking up of an august assembly.—We hear that an Order will soon be issued, by which the gentlemen of the army are to wear nothing but their regimental uniforms.

Some letters from Vienna advise, that a misunderstanding had lately arisen between that Court and the King of Prussia; the consequence of which was much dreaded.

We hear that the ladies, who through the dirt of the last winter of two, dragged out many a yard of silk at their tails, are now come to a resolution of displaying their industry, by introducing gowns so short, as may convince the gentlemen that they have no holes in their stockings.

We are informed some remonstrances have very lately been received from the Court of Madrid concerning the illicit commerce carried on by the English to the Spanish Seulements in America; which, if continued, may in the end produce a serious quarrel between the two crowns: his Catholick Majesty's revenues having already been computed to suffer a loss of near a million of dollars on that account.

The Lawyers say that the Writ of Attachment against Mr. Almon will not be issued before the third or fourth Day of Term.

This Day both Houses of Parliament met for the Dispatch of Business.

Wednesday morning about 11 o'clock the Right Hon. the House of Peers went to Westminster hall, and proceeded on the examination of the rest of the witnesses in support of the charge against Lord Byron, which being finished, the Sollicitor General summed up the evidence; after which Lord Byron, who declined examining any witnesses on his own behalf, told their Lordships, that what he had to offer in his own vindication he had committed to writing, and begged that it might be read by the Clerk, as he feared his own voice, considering his present situation, would not be heard. His speech was accordingly read by the Clerk in a very audible and distinct manner, and contained an exact detail of all the particulars relating to the melancholly affair between him and Mr Charworth. He said, he declined entering into the circumstances of Mr. Charworth's behaviour farther than was necessary for his own defence, expressed his deep and unfeigned sorrow for the event, and reposed himself with the utmost confidence on their Lordships justice and humanity, and would with chearfulness acquiese in the sentence of the noblest and most equitable Judicature in the world, whether it were for life or for death. The Peers then adjourned to their own House, and after some time returned, when they found his Lordship guilty of Felony, but not of Murder:—The witnesses examined on behalf of the Crown, were several gentlemen in company at the Star and Garter Tavern when the accident happened, the Master and Waiters, Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Adair, the Surgeons who attended Mr. Charworth, his uncle, and the Lawyer who made his will.

There is no Liberty in this Country, which is held more dear than that of the PRESS, nor indeed with so much Reason; for if that is destroyed, what we have else to boast of, is gone in an instant. Arbitrary Ministers (and none but such) are Enemies to this Liberty, because it ever has been a Check upon their Tyranny. But, if ever that Time should come when the Press may be punished without a JURY (that great and solemn Priviledge of Englishmen, delivered down to us by our virtuous and spirited Ancestors) may we not fear the liberties of this Country, and all the blessings of this Country, and all the Blessings which it boasts above other Nations, will be departed for ever? While we have JURIES, we may be free, or if we are not, it is our own Fault. And if these are taken from us, we shall be the mere Slaves of a Minister, who may do as he pleases; may by innuendo an illegal Construction, order his Mercidons to hunt Printers and Publishers, till he is intirely rid of the PRESS.

To the PRINTER.

I am just come to Town, and the first News I heard was, that the PRINTERS & Publishers are all frightened out of their Wits, [not quite, but nearly such in North-America,) and that the Liberty of the PRESS was upon the verge of Destruction. As I know not what Ground there might be for these Assertations, I made some Enquiry, and found sure enough that you PRINTERS and Publishers have but too much Reason to be alarmed; for during the last Twelve Months, there have been no less than EIGHT Attacks upon the PRESS. Indeed this is serious Business and well deserves some sober Consideration, and in my Opinion, (would in any Times, but the present) make a Minister think so. However, I cannot think the People quite so lethargic as some Folks in Power tell me; they say the People are quite satisfied, are perfectly easy in their Minds, and sincerely believe that their Liberties and their Interests are undoubtedly secure in the Hands of the present Administration.—May be so.——Nobody desires to have Liberty of this Country secure than I do: But I cannot help saying, that this Court Cant, very ill agrees with certain very Public Transactions. Can our Liberties be secure, when that great and essential one of the PRESS is daily attacked, and PRINTERS and BOOK-SELLERS are so terrified by uncommon Rigour, that they will neither Print nor Publish? Can our Liberties be secure, if that highest and most valuable of all our Liberties, a JURY, be taken from us? To destroy the Liberty of the PRESS, and take away Trials by JURY, are what despotic Ministers have ever aimed at, as the only Bars to their arbitrary Designs. Therefore if any Steps are taken for accomplishing these, can the great People think, the little ones are such Fools, as to still believe their Liberties are secure? -- It is such an Absurdity, that one can compare it to Nothing but the deceitful Conduct of a certain Martyr who, while he pretended to be a Friend to Liberty, was making the most alarming strides towards Tyranny. From such Times, good Lord deliver us! Yes, and in North America we offer up the same Prayer.

HALIFAX, May 16.

Yesterday at the Supreme Court for the County of Halifax, were sentenc'd to be hang'd, Cornelius Driscoll and David Lawler, for the Murder of Owen Kervan and Ann Mullins, they are to be executed on Monday the 20th Inst. At the same Time, were sentence'd to be hang'd, James Dennel, Joshua Smith and David Taylor, for Theft.

There was also sentenc'd, Timothy Kief for a Rape on an Infant of 8 or 10 Years of Age, he is to stand in the Pillory for the Space of one Hour, to be fined the Sum of 20l. to our Soverceign Lord the King, and to give Security for his good Behaviour for the Space of Twelve Months, and to stand committed until he pays the Fine, and finds Security. John Barns being brought to the Bar, pray'd the Benefit of the Clergy, which was allowed, and said John Barns was according burnt in the Hand.

May 23 Friday last arrived here Capt. Napper, in a Snow he was bound from New York to London, upon his Passage, about 100 Leagues to the Eastward of this Port, he met with a violent Gale of Wind, Thunder and Lightning, wherein he had the Misfortune to loose three of his People, who were struck by Lightning and were instantly dead, and struck two more which are almost recovered; he was oblig'd to put in here to refit, as his Vessel was grown very leaky by said Misfortune.

Monday last were executed, Cornelius Driscol and David Lowlar, for the Murder of Owen Kervan and Ann Mullins, and were afterwards hang'd in Jibbits at Dartmouth.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30

John Hughes, Esq; for this province, and William Coxe, Esq; for New Jersey, are appointed Stamp-Officers.

From the Havannah we learn, that they had lately there an 80 Gun Ship and three Frigates in the Harbour, besides a 74 and an 80 Gun ship on the Stocks: That they had about 6000 regular troops; were very busy in fortifying the Place; the Punto was finished, in a Manner greatly superior to whatever it was before; the Moro Castle almost done; and two Citadels erecting, one to the East, the other South-east, on the opposite side of the Harbour, for the Defence and Command of the Town: And that the Spaniards were very strict with the English, not allowing them to view their Fortifications, and would hardly suffer them to go ashore.

We have the Pleasure of informing our Readers, that the Report which seemed to gain Credit a few Days ago, of the Plague having broke out at Scilly, is altogether without Foundation.

From South-Carolina we have Advice, that the small Pox has lately carried off 1500 Choctaw, and 300 Chickesaw Indians.

The Ship Hero, Capt. Taylor, from St. Martin's for this Place, is put into Antigua, where the Vessel is condemned, having met with very hard Gales of Wind, in which two of the Hands were washed overboard, and drowned, the Mainmast, Foremast, and Head, lost; and by shipping a Sea his Boat was stove to Pieces, several Planks stove in, and most of the Timbers broke. The Ship left St. Martin's the 24th of December last.

NEW-YORK, June 3.

In Consequence of a Protest against the officers of the Customs in New-York for refusing Liberty to transport English made Hats from one Part of the British Dominions to another, which protest was seconded by a Memorial to the Lords of Trade from Mr Wilday an eminent Hatter of Atherstone in Warwickshire, and by several other Hatters of different Parts, a Bill was brought in to the House of Commons, about the last of March, to grant Liberty to transport English made Hats from one Place to another, as freely as any other Kinds of dry Goods.

The Six Nations, with the Delawares of Susquehanna, who were long expected by Sir William Johnson, arrived at Johnson Hall the 6th of May; and we are assured have agreed to the Particulars recommended to them by the King's Orders. The Delawares of Ohio, with those of Susquehanna have subscribed to a Treaty of Peace, which must prove very advantageous if duly observed; and their Readiness upon this Occasion has a very promising Appearance. The latter have left their two Chiefs as Hostages until they bring down some Prisoners and Negroes amongst them; and the Senecas have done the same, as there are yet some Prisoners among them. The Number of Indians assembled on this Occasion, exceeded 900: They were to go to their respective Homes a few Days after the 16th of May; and the Prisoners, &c. were to be delivered up within 40 Days; in which Time there is Reason to expect they will be punctual, as there are so many of their Chiefs Hostages at present in Sir William's Custody, whose Enlargement must be greatly desired by the several Nations.

Mr. Cummings, formerly a Printer in Cork, and about 14 Years ago Merchant in New York, in Company with Johnson, who planned the Conquest of Senegal and Goree, has obtained a Grant of 500l. per Annum for 30 Years, as a Reward for his Services.

Tuesday last a Scotch young Lad of the name of Thompson, bathing himself in the North River, was carried off by the Tide and drown'd.

Last Week several Artificers set out from hence for Skenesborough, in order to erect Grist and other Mills, for the Convenicncy of the Settlers.

BOSTON, June 10

Monday last being the Anniversary of the Election of Officers for the antient and honorable Artillery Company, the following Gentlemen were chosen for the ensuing Year, viz.

WILLIAM HOMES, Esq; Captain.
THOMAS DAWES, Esq; Lieutenant.
Mr. SAMUEL TORREY, Ensign.

Previous to the Choice the Company waited on his Excellency the Governor, the Honorable his Majesty's Council, &c. to the Old Brick Meeting-House, where a Sermon suitable to the Occasion was preached by the Rev. Mr. GAD HITHCOCK, of Hanover. After which they proceeded to Faneuil Hall, where an elegant Dinner was provided by the Company; and in the Evening the new elected Officers made a generous Entertainment when many loyal Healths were drank.

Tuesday last our most gracious Sovereign King GEORGE III entered the 28th Year of his Age. On which Occasion his Excellency the Captain-General's Troop of Guards, commanded by Brig. General Royall, and the Regiment of Militia, commanded by Colonel Jackson, with the Company of the Train of Artillery belonging thereto, and the Company of Cadets, commanded by Colonel Jarvis, were all mustered, and performed their several Exercises in the Training-Field: After which the whole marched into King-street, where three Vollies were fired by each of them respectively, followed by a Discharge of the Field-Pieces eleven Times, and of the Guns at Castle William and at the two Batteries in Town: The Company of Cadets provided a sumptuous Dinner at the Bunch of Grapes, to which were invited his Excellency the Governor, his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, the Officers of his Majesty's Navy and Army that were in the Town, and several other Gentlemen. In the Evening his Excellency the Governor, the Honorable his Majesty's Council, the Honorable House of Representatives, the Civil and Military Officers, and a Number of other Gentlemen, met at Faneuil-Hall, where his Majesty's and other loyal Healths, were drank; and the whole conducted with great Decency and good Order.

By a Person who came to Town last Wednesday from Albany, we are informed, that Advice was received there before he came away, that a most terrible Fire broke out at Montreal, which consumed 108 Houses, most of which were occupied by British Merchants and Factors.—It was generally supposed to be occasioned by some Accident.

By Capt. Weaver, from Dominica, we hear that the Earthquakes at that Island have subsided; and that the Report we had some Time since of one half of the Island with the Inhabitants thereon being swallowed up, was premature; that a large Mountain which was divided by a Shock, is supposed to have given Rise to that Report.

Augustus Johnston, Esq; Attorney General for the Colony of Rhode Island, is appointed Stamp Officer.

Thursday last, one Griffith, who pass'd for Rev'd. and has preach'd at the Churches here, at Cambridge, and Portsmouth, was committed to Cambridge Goal, on clear Proof of his being too Light-Finger'd.
